How did you go?

Auditory Exercise Script

Today we are looking at the sound 'f'....f for fish...f...f...f

Our goal for today is to hear the 'f' sound in words.

Let's do some warm up mouth exercises. Repeat after me...f...f...fish...finger

Now get your activity page ready. Look at the first table with all the fish emojis.

Tick a fish if you hear the 'f' sound at the start of these words.

If you can't hear the 'f' sound then put a cross. Here we go....

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' at the start of the word.....find

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' at the start of the word.....fun

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' at the start of the word.....fork

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' at the start of the word.....gate

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' at the start of the word.....fake

Look at the next table with all the fish emojis. Tick the fish if you hear the 'f' sound in these words. Listen carefully because the sound could be in the middle or at the end of the word. If you can't hear the 'f' sound then put a cross. Here we go....

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' in the word.....laugh

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' in the word.....nephew

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' in the word.....coffee

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' in the word.....pen

Tick a fish if you hear 'f' in the word.....sniff

Now look at these sentences. I am going to read them slowly. If you hear a word that has the 'f' sound circle the word. Don't be tricked, the word might be spelt differently to what you think so listen carefully. Here we go... don't forget to circle the word that has the 'f' sound.

My phone is broken.

The coffee is hot.

Now, draw and label 3 things that have the 'f' sound.

When you've finished that, don't forget to colour the face at the bottom.
